2026.10 Minutes

(a) To adopt the Minutes of the Ordinary Meeting held on Tuesday 3rd March 2026

The Minutes of the Ordinary Meeting held on Tuesday 3rd March 2026 were agreed to be a true and accurate record of that Meeting and were signed by Cllr Cawood

(b) To review each of the Action Points from the Minutes of the March Meeting

- the application process for a temporary road closure will be similar to previous years, but the £20,000 earmarked to cover those costs should mean that no payment is due

Initials:

- ACTION: Ward Cllr Hammond to follow up regarding the repair to the second broken manhole cover on The Balk
- ACTION: Ward Cllr Hammond to obtain an update with regards to the request for "bend ahead" road signs to be installed on Main Street near to The Manor
- The Wolds Explorer bus service has just started operating for the 2026 season
ACTION: Clerk to update Parish Council website when the new timetable is available
- Initial letters giving further information on the roadworks along The Mile have been delivered to local residents, and a further "Stage 2" letter is scheduled to follow. Members of the Parish Council stressed the need for these "Stage 2" letters to have wider delivery coverage and to be delivered more carefully, with examples being given of the original letters being left in unsuitable locations
ACTION: Ward Cllrs to provide a further update at the May Meeting
- The Clerk had no further comments to add to the Appraisal form, which is due to be signed and concluded under Agenda item 2026.18 of this Meeting
- Ward Cllr Hammond advised that the chalk residue on the road adjacent to the Fenstone quarry site has been formally reported to ERYC
- issues reported to the Parish Council which require resident action will initially be communicated verbally to the resident by a Member of the Parish Council. If the issue remains unresolved, escalation can be made to ERYC via the Ward Councillors
- ACTION: Ward Cllr Hammond to liaise with Ward Cllr West regarding the overhanging trees on Swineridge Lane which require further pruning
- The Schedule of Meetings has been produced and added to noticeboards and website
- ACTION: Clerk to send out the 2026-27 allotment invoices together with the notices of rents due in 2027-28
